

ROSIKA SCHWIMMER
=====

Although there is no law requiring women to serve in the army or navy of the United States, Rosika Schwimmer has been refused American citizenship by the District Court in Chicago on the sole grounds that she is unwilling "to bear arms in defense of this country". She has appealed the case and it will now come before the Circuit Court of Appeals.

Will you not take some action and send a report of your protest to her for her encouragement and to use in her campaign of publicity against this outrageous ruling?

Rosika Schwimmer's address is:

2 West 83rd Street, New York City.
